

SOCIOLOGY-BUSINESS (SB)

SB 315 - Work, Family, and Organizations

Credits: 3

The analysis of various white-collar and blue-collar occupations and their relationship to work and family life. Topics include the changing nature of work; professionalization; working within organizations; and occupational socialization, careers, and mobility.

Prerequisites: One gateway course from SO 101, SO 201, SO 202, SO 203, SO 204, GW 101, or MB 224 and one additional course in sociology or gender studies.